THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM AT THE WASHINGTON THEATER

Following is the program for the week at the Washington Theater:
Monday—Clara Kimball Young in "The Yellow Passport."
Tuesday—Marguerite Clark in "Molly Make Believe."
Wednesday—Douglas Fairbanks in "His Picture Off the Wall" and William Collier in "Better Late Than Never."
The Washington will then close until after the Chautauqua, opening on Friday, July 7, with Pauline Frederick in "The Moment Before."

THANK YOU BOB!

The C. & O. and the city certainly have one coming to Colonel Robert Carrigan, the Commerce street watchman. Bob has cleaned out the ditches west of the crossing about one hundred feet and thrown the dirt upon the top of the bank leveling up the sidewalk and covering the immense growth of weeds. The citizens in that vicinity all vote Bob many thanks, but as thanks don't buy 10 cent sugar, its up to the two corporations to come across in a more substantial way.

MAYSVILLE MEN HONORED

Words have been received here that Mr. L. C. Reynolds, a local insurance man, has been re-elected as vice-president of the World Baraca of the Baptist Church and that Mr. Ben Greenlee, the popular carrier on rural route No. 1 has been elected as state secretary of that organization. These men are both good workers in the local Baraca and can feel justly honored.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN DIVORCE?

Divorce always lets out a bad bargain—the one who made it bad. Do you believe in divorce? Don't think of answering until you have seen "The Silent Shame," one of the justly famous "Who's Guilty?" plays to be shown at the Pastime today. Others on the program today are Rufus Wallingford and Heinie and Louie in "All Dolled Up" comedy.

CLEVELAND WALKER DEAD

Mr. Cleveland Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Walker, died at his home at Helena Saturday morning at 5 o'clock after an illness of typhoid fever. He is survived by a wife and four children. The funeral was held from the Helena Methodist Church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment was in the Wedonia cemetery.

A PET CROW

For the past week a crow has made its home back of the Christian Church yard. This crow seems to be used to civilization and may have strayed away from some home where it was considered a domesticated bird. The way in which this bird comes for the grain offered it, shows that it is used to being thus fed.

GRADUATES FROM HARVARD

Mr. Wadsworth Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clarke, of this city, who has been attending Harvard University has received an A. M. Degree from that place. He will remain in the East this summer having accepted a position with a large manufacturing concern in Bristol, Conn.

KNIGHT TEMPLAR

Maysville Commandery No. 10 K. T. will meet in stated Conclave this evening at 7 o'clock. All Sir Knights are requested to be on hand at the hour. Business of importance followed by conferring of degrees.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Curry left this morning for Richmond, Ky., to take a month's course in the Eastern Normal School at that place. They will prepare for their work as teachers in the Germantown school the coming year.

Annan Marks, colored, of the Fleming pike, who shot his wife on last Thursday, will be tried today on a charge of shooting another with intent to kill.

Rev. J. M. Literal has returned home from Madison, New Jersey, where he has been attending a two weeks' series of lectures at Drew Theological Seminary.

Mr. James Needam Parry left Saturday for Cincinnati en route to his home at Pittsburgh, Pa., after a several weeks' visit with relatives and friends in this city.

Miss Sallie Pecor of Cincinnati spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. J. C. Pecor, of West Second street.

Dr. A. O. Taylor of West Third street has returned after a short trip to Cleveland, Ohio.

SUCCESSORS TO J. WESLEY LEE

TRIMMED AGAIN

Were the Maysville Burley Cubs Sunday Afternoon by the Score of 5 to 3.

Once more the local team went down in defeat Sunday afternoon when the Frankfort Old Taylors gave them a drubbing by the score of 5 to 3. French pitched good ball but his teammates did not give him the proper support with the stick. However he made two hits out four trips, driving in one run. He outpitched Bacon but the effort was absolutely nil.

As usual Frankfort scored in the first. Kimble walked for two. Henges dropped one into Kaiser's hands, Lindholm slammed one to center scoring Kimble. But the Cubs came back when Timin paraded, Hoffman sacrificed, Kaiser stroked, Jones pounded the air three times, French rammed a beauty single to right, Timin arriving home.

Thinking to clinch the game Maysville put another one over in the second. With one dead Coyle sauntered and pilfered second scoring a moment later on Wickham's roller through second. Alas for hopes. In third stant with two down Henges drew four, Lindholm singled and mighty Kelly did likewise scoring Henges Score 2 to 2.

The game progressed nicely until the sixth. Lindholm started by dropping one in Hoffman's paws. Kelly got another single, Bacon also flied out and then McKittrick singled after Kelly had stole second, scoring said gentleman. Maysville again tied it up in her half when Kaiser walked Jones singled, Kaiser crossing the path on the throw in from Williams fly to Lindholm.

The game ceased as far as scoring was concerned until the eighth. With one down, Lindholm singled, Kelly hit the pill for two sacks, and Bacon won his own game by dropping a nice Texas Leaguer scoring Lindholm and Kelly.

In the fourth umpire Franklin chased Ducky Holmes from the field. Holmes objected too strenuously to some of Franklin's decisions and was chased for his remarks which Franklin considered as entirely irrelevant.

SATURDAY'S GAME

After the first inning McGraynor settled down and won Saturday's game, 6 to 5, which afterward developed into a slugfest for the Cubs. McIlvain was hard hit, the Cubs getting 14 safeties and seven free trips, while 17 Cubs were left on bases. Timin was up three times with two out and the sacks filled, but failed to hit safely. Kelly was flied in the eighth and put out of the game in the ninth by Umpire Franklin for continual kicking. McGraynor's batting and Timin's and Kimble's fielding featured. The score follows:

Frankfort .300001100-5
Maysville .310000111-6

NOTES

A deal was closed here Saturday whereby Big Ed Monroe, of the Frankfort Club, will go to Memphis, Tenn., of the Southern League. Monroe is to report for duty at once.
